Court Orders/Actions:

Preliminary Matters:

Prior to the presentation of evidence, the Court entered an oral order consolidating the 42 cases pursuant to C.R.C.P. 42. The Court then made a record explaining the timing of the hearing. After hearing from Petitioner, the Court DENIED his Motion to Require Notice and Disclosure of Circumstances Related to Case Assignment.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court for an ex parte Hearing regarding a Temporary Protection Order. Having heard and carefully considered the evidence and testimony of Petitioner, Christopher Gregory, the Court enters oral ORDERS, which incorporated herein and are summarized in written form:

The Court notes Ingrid De Franco is listed as a protected party. The Court has not been presented with evidence of a legal relationship that would permit Petitioner to seek protection on behalf of Ms. De Franco. Accordingly, the following findings are made as to the Petitioner.

Applying the standard set forth in section 13-14-104.5(7), C.R.S., the Court finds that Petitioner has not met the burden of proving a risk or threat of physical harm, or a threat of psychological or emotional harm, to the Petitioner. A Temporary Protection Order may be issued to prevent assaults and threatened bodily harm, domestic abuse, emotional abuse of an elderly or at-risk adult, sexual violence, or stalking. Based on the evidence presented, the Court concludes that Petitioner has not alleged conduct falling within any of the five statutory purposes outlined in C.R.S. §13-4-104.5(1)(a)(I)(V). See also C.R.S. § 13-14-100.2.

The Court further finds that all, or nearly all, of the alleged misconduct occurred while the Respondents were acting within the scope of their employment. There are no allegations that any Respondent personally stalked the Petitioner or threatened bodily harm. The parties are not related such that a finding of domestic abuse could be made. The Petitioner is not an at-risk adult, and there are no allegations of sexual violence.

The Court does not dispute that the Petitioner has experienced psychological and emotional stress as a result of his interactions with the Respondents. However, the Court does not find that this stress was caused by illegal or otherwise prohibited conduct of the Respondents. The Court finds the Respondents have not committed acts that would constitute grounds for a civil protection order.

Accordingly, the Temporary Protection Order is DENIED.

District Court Judge

4. a) The most recent incident that causes me to ask for a Civil Protection Order occurred on or about September 10, 2026 (date), at about 4:46 p.m. (time), in Denver / San Diego (CA) (County), when April M. McMurrey (name of person) did the following to me and/or the above named Protected Persons: Be specific: What was the threat or acts of violence? Where did this occur? Were the minor children or other Protected Persons present? Was a weapon involved?

Deputy Regulation Counsel April M. McMurrey (via e-mail) sent me the attached letter notifying me that despite being individual capacity defendants in a federal civil action that includes a claim for retaliation brought under the Colorado False Claims Act (the CFCA)--Gregory v. Colo. Jud. Rulemaking Comm., et al., 1:25-cv-03361-KHV-GEB (D. Colo.), the Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court and Attorney General Philip Weiser intended to open a secret investigation of my conduct in having publicly disclosed the admitted judicial misconduct of Adams County Court Judge Leroy Kirby, which included Judge Kirby receiving a "private censure" while I served as Chair of the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline. The Colorado Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel (OARC) is part of the Colorado Supreme Court and directly subject to the Justices' supervision and control. When requested to disqualify, OARC and the Justices have refused, while the PDJ has issued a disqualification order. There is a pattern of witness intimidation and retaliation.

- b) The most serious incident that causes me to ask for a Civil Protection Order occurred on or about January 22, 2024 (date), at about 5:03 p.m. (time), in Denver/Boulder/Jefferson (County), when AAG Alison Kyles and AAG Gina Cannan (name of person) did the following to me and/or the above named Protected Persons: Be specific: What was the threat or acts of violence? Where did this occur? Were the minor children or other Protected Persons present? Was a weapon involved?

AAG Kyles and AAG Cannan (working at the direction and control of Attorney General Philip Weiser) threatened to seek a search warrant, to bring criminal charges, and/or to bring civil proceedings to coerce my surrendering a copy of my records as Executive Director of the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline. Instead of agreeing to deposit the records (which I had a right to keep under Sec. 24-31-1204(8)(a)(I)-(II), (b), C.R.S.) with the FBI or the U.S. District Court, Kyles and Cannan insisted that I surrender the records to the Colorado Attorney General's Office with an affidavit under oath that I had surrendered my only copy. The Justices, Weiser, and the CCJD are now trying to use the affidavit as a means of further retaliation.

- c) Any other past incidents of violence or threats? Be specific: What was the threat or acts of violence? Where did this occur? Were the minor children or other Protected Persons present? Was a weapon involved?

There is a long standing pattern, where the Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court, Attorney General Philip Weiser, the members and staff of the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline, their subordinates, and other public servants/officials have interfered with my right to freely report criminal and ethical misconduct under the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article II, Sections 10 and 25 of the Colorado Constitution. Many of these facts/allegations were made in my federal case, 25-cv-03361, in which a default had entered against all defendants and in which all defendants have avoided / refused to file a responsive pleading. The Justices are concealing grounds for their immediate suspension and removal.
