VERIFIED SUPPLEMENT TO DECLARATION OF CHRISTOPHER S.P. GREGORY TO COMPEL PROSECUTION UNDER § 16-5-209, C.R.S.; EXHIBIT 13-1

State of Colorado)
County of Boulder)

Christopher S.P. Gregory, Colo. Atty. Reg. No. 37095 ("Declarant") being of lawful age, of sound mind, and declaring under penalty of perjury, deposes and says the following:

Comes now Petitioner Christopher S.P. Gregory for himself, in pro per, and supplements his "Declaration of Christopher S.P. Gregory to Compel Prosecution Under § 16-5-209, C.R.S." to include additional Exhibit 13-1. In support of this supplementation, Petitioner states the following, upon information and belief:

1. Petitioner's Declaration to Compel Prosecution details how Colorado Attorney General Phil Weiser and the law firm Recht Kornfeld, P.C. obstructed Petitioner's reporting of ethical and criminal conduct to the Colorado Independent Ethics Commission (the IEC) by appointing Recht Kornfeld Partner Jane B. Cox as a Special Assistant Attorney General (SAAG) to review Petitioner's IEC complaints. Declaration to Compel

Prosecution, p. 10 fn. 8. Ms. Cox's obstruction of justice is verified through invoices attached to Petitioner's Declaration to Compel Prosecution as Exhibit 13.

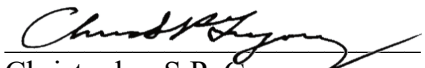
2. On October 21, 2026, IEC Executive Director Dino Ioannides emailed Petitioner to inform him that the IEC had voted to disclose its engagement agreement with Recht Kornfeld for Ms. Cox's appointment as a SAAG. The engagement agreement introduces additional material facts that support Petitioner's Declaration to Compel Prosecution and the relief requested. Specifically, the engagement agreement is approved on Attorney General Philip J. Weiser's behalf by Deputy Attorney General E. Lee Reichert. Deputy AG Reichert, however, supervises AAG Gina Cannan, who previously dually served as general counsel to the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline (the CCJD) and to the IEC. Ms. Cannan is the Respondent in Gregory v. Cannan, Boulder Cnty. Ct. (Longmont) Case No. 26C30729. Mr. Reichert has substantial personal knowledge of the circumstances of Petitioner's retaliatory termination as Executive Director of the CCJD, including Ms. Cannan's role in that termination and subsequent efforts to intimidate, retaliate against, harass, and stalk Petitioner. Mr. Reichert is a material witness and was fully aware of the conflicts that should have prevented the unethical appointment of Jane B. Cox and Recht Kornfeld, P.C. as SAAG for the IEC.

Petitioner now supplements the record in this and all related cases with the IEC's engagement agreement and related communications, marked Exhibit 13-1 to Petitioner's respectively filed "Declaration of Christopher S.P. Gregory to Compel Prosecution Under § 16-5-209, C.R.S."

VERIFICATION

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Colorado that the foregoing statements made in this Declaration are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Executed on the 23rd day of October, 2026, at Longmont, Colorado.



Christopher S.P. Gregory

Respectfully submitted,
