Subject: Colorado Judicial Scandal

Good morning Kyle,

Rhea and I have been working on a developing story about widespread corruption in the Colorado Judicial Department, the Attorney General's Office, the Governor's Office, and the Secretary of State's Office. Through an earlier article from David Migoya and the following op ed article that I drafted, the issues are distilled from an otherwise very complex context:

https://denvergazette.com/news/federal-probe-of-judiciary-scandal-in-colorado-requested-at-hearing/article_05685c8b-22c1-453a-b286-db9156abe26a.html

Of all the various media outlets, I recognize your special skill for making important issues involving government integrity accessible to the general public. If there is any way you and your team might be able to look into this story, there is an opportunity to press legislators and the public to do the right thing and start demanding accountability. The Senate Judiciary Committee is planning to hold a follow up meeting tomorrow or over the weekend. The issues are fundamentally important and good people will continue to be hurt until this corruption ends.

If I can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Warmest regards,
Christopher Gregory
